Notice.

I have moved to Bartow where I can at all times be found. I owe various parties in Arcadia, all of whom I will pay all I owe to them if they will but give me time and not shove me too hard. I have always enjoyed the confidence of the business people and if in hard luck now, will make good as soon as I can.

To those that owe me I would respectfully ask that they help me by paying what they owe, that I may be enabled to pay my debts.

I will return to Arcadia shortly and complete the contract I have with the Florida Baptist Orphanage.

Respectfully,

W. G. BAILEY.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

Business without murder or suicide. Observers are inquiring the cause of all this. Not prosperity, surely, for the suicides always have as an excuse destitution, business failures or despair. The murders generally can be traced to bad whiskey, for all whiskey is bad.

We notice with pleasure that the bright scholar, J. N. C. Stockton, who lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by Harry Cross.

There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at Ed Greene's drug store. 50c
